

Courage Jar

Family members write messages on a popsicle stick and put them in a jar. Each day, choose one for an encouraging, empowering reminder of how we can overcome our fears and weaknesses with God's help. Younger children can just draw pictures on the sticks.

