

Saint Teresa de Ávila's Prayer

Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes with which He looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good, Yours are the hands with which He blesses all the world.

Translations of the hymns: O Salutaris at Exposition, and Tantum Ergo at Benediction:

O Victim bringing saving grace, who open wide the gate of heav'n: our foes assail and press us hard; give us your strength, bring us your aid. To you be everlasting praise and glory, One and Triune Lord, who grant us life that knows no end, for ever in our heav'nly home. Amen.

*Let us, therefore, bow and worship such a wondrous Sacrament; let the ancient law and custom to a newer rite now yield;
let our faith supply conviction where the sense tire and fail. To the Father, unbegotten, and the Sole begotten Son, be salvation, blessing, honor, jubilation, pow'r, and praise; to the One from both proceeding equal glory and renown. Amen.*
